A Gift

"I just love how it's all about a relationship. God is so personal. I can know that Jesus died on the cross... but to think He died for ME. "WHOA!" She said with amazement. What a gift. What a gift it is to witness her open up the greatest gift she could receive. What a gift she is. And not just to us, but to the world. To think that we have the opportunity to play a small role in cultivating gifts from God. Offering what we can gives them the opportunity to shine. To be in awe and wonder of the God that created them. To grow in the freedom that Jesus offers them as they surrender to His plans. She would be the first to tell you, this is not what she thought her life would look like. Really, she couldn't even see a future at all. And as she likes to say, "But God." She still doesn't know what her life will look like or what the future holds. It's a journey.

But what she does know, she is loved.

Friendship

She pulled out the many coffee creamers from the fridge that she had accumulated in her effort to replicate the fancy coffee drinks she saw on Tik Tok.

"Do you have a travel coffee cup I could borrow?" She asked. "I want to make Ms. Wanda a special coffee."

Wanda, one of her faithful and brave driving instructors, would be taking her out for another adventure on the road. While driving is an extremely valuable skill to learn, something even more beautiful has happened.

Friendship.

"I was feeling down one day and then I went driving with Ms. Wanda, and I realized I just needed someone to talk to. I'm excited for the next time we go out." What started as circles around a parking lot (with some quite fast turns I hear!), developed into some times of driving and then going out to eat afterwards. When the Dream House was just a vision and merely notes on a page, our desire was that life skills would be transferred in the context of relationships. And they are.

Updates

We currently have one young lady transitioning to her own apartment and two living at the Dream House (and one adorable two year old). We are currently assisting five other young adults in our support program, through life coaching, transportation, Bible study, and friendship. We currently have several applications that we are looking to the Lord for discernment in how to move forward.

Thank you to Pastor Megan Parsons for teaching on and leading the group through a special time of communion! Thank you to our driving instructors, Jim Hare and Wanda Heebner, for their commitment! Thank you to Loretta Altland for her selflessness in providing hours upon hours of free childcare!
