

the DREAMHOUSE

Drum roll please... The Dream House is full!

The Dream House is full for the first time! With 5 young ladies, two little ones, and two more little ones on the way...it's fuller than we even dreamed of! And the house is not just full of lovely ladies but it's bursting with goals, dreams, and potential. Jessica wants to be a great mom. Elaysia dreams of becoming a midwife some day. Parice plans on owning her own hair salon. Kay wants to graduate from high school. Tajanay dreams of becoming a Children's counselor.

Each of these girls have faced challenges, some hard challenges that could make these dreams seem impossible. But here they are, rising above. One step at a time, they are moving towards these goals. And let's keep it real. Sometimes they take steps backwards. Sometimes they need a hand literally pulling them forward to that next step. But as long as they choose to hold on, there's hope. And we won't give up the fight, because we believe each of these girls are worth it.

Graduates!

GED, that always seems to be the plan B when finishing high school doesn't go as planned.

But when these girls were presented with the opportunity to FINISH high school at the Commonwealth Charter Academy, they took it, and now we have two more high school graduates!

Lake Tobias Trip

Elaysia loves reptiles, Kay loves tigers, and Jess just loves all animals so a trip to Lake Tobias was perfect!

What a blessing Jinada has been to the Dream House! Jinada began volunteering as a mentor in the beginning of 2021. She then became a Dream House Board Member later that year.

She now has stepped into a revised role as Life Skills Mentor with Parice. She was right beside her in the hospital as she went into labor and has walked beside her as she is navigating being a new mother. Whether supporting her at doctors appointments, going grocery shopping, giving her nudges to make things happen or just being a listening ear, Parice feels cared for.

We need more women to say “yes” like Jinada has. Three of our girls are not able to benefit from a special support like this because they are still waiting for individuals to step up and say “God can use me”, “This girl is worth making time for” or “Sign me up!”

Please email Anthony if you are interested in being a Life Skills Mentor!
