the DREAMHOUSE

She pushed the pause button on the remote and looked down at her toddler, "No more Thomas until you help clean up your mess." The two-year old had decided to dump his oranges on the floor, and quickly toddled off. As she continued to coax him, she got down on the floor and together they picked up the oranges.

"Good job buddy. You cleaned up your mess. I'm so proud of you!"

Just days ago, there had been a lot more than oranges on the floor. A downward spiral had left the place looking like a breeding ground for despair. But hearts and hands joined together in lifting her out of the valley. Her house of despair became a home of worth. She stood back, proudly showing us the bedrooms that she had been working on for her children. Decorations on the walls—that she had done. Toys organized, that was her. When people came alongside her, showed her what she was worth, created a possibility for something better, she rose to a new place. And her son will be there too, picking up his oranges.

4th Birthday Celebration!

We had a great time celebrating the 4th Birthday since we opened our doors on March 15th, 2020! Thank you to Luke and Sierra Wilston for providing a time of worship! We gave praise for all that God has done and prayed into all that He will do!

Thank you to everyone who joined us!
